Hello Ima. It is an honor to provide you with an Intuitive Journey. It is my hope that the information received today will serve as a beacon light on your wondrous journey through life.

1. What is the primary reason for my money woes?

The Words: What you refer to as your "money woes" is rooted in your perception of what is. Money materializes from a vibration that is much higher than that which your current perception will allow you to experience. Bathe in the vibration of prosperity!

The Words: You have never allowed yourself to be at peace about money –no matter how much or how little you possessed. At every opportunity, you returned to a place of "not-enoughness". Some of it is rooted in guilt about having surpassed family or friends financially. Another side of it is your doubting that you deserve or have earned "the good life". It is time to step out of your cloak of poverty. Remove it and allow it to fall away.

2. What is the significance of opportunities arising that are related to the career I wish to shift out of rather than the spiritual work that I desire to do more of?

The Words: The consistency or bridge between the two is "teaching". You are a master teacher who has been given a gift that combines knowledge of complex principles with the ability to communicate that information on many levels. The career path that you are hesitant to revisit presently carries within it a seed for a deep level of healing that could benefit many people. Your personal experience of the current trend from both sides of the fence gives you an expanded level of compassion and understanding that cannot be discerned from text book knowledge or theory. this revisitation. Know that it will not deter you on your path. Instead, it will enable you to walk it with a greater sense of knowingness.

3. How can I take the next step on my journey with more ease and grace?

The Words: Clear and release. There are many things in your life that no longer serve your best and highest good. It's okay to let go. Thank them for the lessons and growth they have brought you and release them with love. Do not fret about the "people" who are part of this release process. They are more than capable of spreading their wings and soaring to new heights. You may provide energetic support and well wishes as often as it is comforting to do so. Put YOUR vision out there front-and-center as a constant reminder of your target or intention.

4. What area would it be helpful for me to focus on to take that step more joyfully?

The Words: Completion! A multitude of unfinished projects carries an energetic fragmentation that permeates all areas of your life. There are pieces of you everywhere. As you move forward with the intent to complete, discard or officially "shelve" some of your projects, a higher vision will come into clear view. With that higher vision comes a more illumined path.

Closing Reminders: Decide what is most joyful, fulfilling and important to you right now. From that space of clarity, you can begin to take inspired action.

Your Intuitive Journey will remain available on this webpage _____ for 30 days. I have also included a coupon on the page that you may use in the next 60 days for another Intuitive Journey.
